

The following is a list of suggested career planning activities. Place a ☒ next to an activity you've accomplished.

STEP 1: Research areas of interest to determine possible career paths.	STEP 2: Take action steps towards career development.
☐ Take an interest, strengths, values, and/or personality inventory. ☐ Conduct online research on occupations and employers of interest. • Visit career.nebrwesleyan.edu and explore the "Major and Career Exploration" and "Gain Experience" pages. ☐ Interview professionals in a career of interest through an information interview. ☐ Shadow professionals in a career of interest. ☐ Seek out clubs or organizations on campus that are related to field of interest. ☐ Research professional organization resources associated with careers of interest. ☐ Talk about career plans with a career coach at Nebraska Wesleyan University. ☐ Talk about career plans with mentors, family, and friends. ☐ Talk about career plans with academic advisor.	☐ Look at job descriptions related to field of interest to discover required and preferred qualifications. ☐ Seek out activities on campus that might lead to leadership roles or assist in the development of relevant and/or transferable skills. • Student organization officer roles • Teaching assistant roles • Lab assistant roles • Student/faculty research • Cooper Center Tutor ☐ Volunteer with a not-for-profit or social organization of interest. ☐ Prepare a resume and have it reviewed by the Career Center. ☐ Complete your Handshake profile and download the app. ☐ Develop a full LinkedIn profile, have it reviewed by the Career Center, and connect with professionals and follow organizations in areas of interest. ☐ Attend a career fair or a networking reception. ☐ Explore relevant part-time jobs and internships related to field of interest. ☐ Schedule a mock interview with the Career Center to practice your interview skills and receive feedback on areas to improve.